Vermont Snow Shovelers Certificate

This is to certify that...

The Jewells'

survived the largest, greatest seasonal snowfall ever recorded in the Burlington Area - 145.4 inches! And, survived the greatest monthly snowfall of any month - December, 1970, 56.7 inches. Snowfall was above normal in February, March and April, 1971.

Will it ever stop?

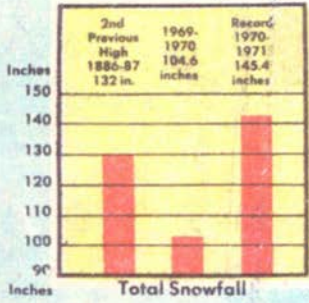

Maximum daily snowfall records set or tied:

December 4, 1970	10 inches
December 9, 1970	6
December 13, 1970	4
December 17, 1970	11
February 23, 1971	6
March 3, 1971	4
March 4, 1971	13
March 7, 1971	6
March 20, 1971	3
April 10, 1971	7

Records for snow cover (i.e. snow on the ground) were set or tied for the following periods:

January 1-5	21 inches
February 6-10	21
February 11-15	20
March 1-5	28
March 6-10	30
March 11-15	31
March 16-20	20
March 21-25	19
March 26-31	15

The 7 inch snowfall on April 10 was the largest one day fall so late in the season.

One of us is going to go!

My car's gotta be there!
